Whistleblower Policy

Adopted or Effective: May 11, 2009

Knappa Water Association is committed to operating in furtherance of its tax-exempt purposes and in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, including those concerning accounting and auditing, and prohibits fraudulent practices by any of its board members, officers, or employees. This policy outlines a procedure for employees to report actions that an employee reasonably believes violate a law, or regulation or that constitutes fraudulent accounting or other practices. This policy applies to any matter which is related to Knappa Water Association's business and does not relate to private acts of an individual not connected to the business of Knappa Water Association.

If an employee has a reasonable belief that an employee of Knappa Water Association has engaged in any action that violates any applicable law, or regulation, including those concerning accounting and auditing, or constitutes a fraudulent practice, the employee is expected to immediately report such information to the Board of Directors president. If the employee does not feel comfortable reporting the information to the president of the Board, he or she is expected to report the information to another director of the Board.

All reports will be followed up promptly, and an investigation conducted. In conducting its investigations, Knappa Water Association will strive to keep the identity of the complaining individual as confidential as possible, while conducting an adequate review and investigation.

Knappa Water Association will not retaliate against an employee in the terms and conditions of employment because that employee: (a) to the president of the Board of Directors or to a federal, state or local agency what the employee believes in good faith to be a violation of the law; or (b) participates in good faith in any resulting investigation or proceeding, or (c) exercises his or her rights under any state or federal law(s) or regulation(s) to pursue a claim or take legal action to protect the employee's rights.

Knappa Water Association may take disciplinary action (up to and including termination) against an employee who, in management's assessment, has engaged in retaliatory conduct in violation of this policy.

In addition, Knappa Water Association will not, with the intent to retaliate, take any action harmful to any employee who has provided to law enforcement personnel or a court truthful information relating to the commission or possible commission by Knappa Water Association or any of its employees of a violation of any applicable law or regulation.
